

2021-2022 Annual Operations Performance Evaluation Form

Employee Name:

Title:

Department:

Supervisor:

This evaluation covers the period of March 1st of the previous year to February 28th of the current year.

Loyola University Maryland's Performance Evaluation Form is designed to link employee performance to Loyola's mission and values as reflected in the Jesuit tradition and to provide guidance and consistency to the evaluation process. It assists the supervisor in making decisions about employee development, merit increases, promotions and continuing employment. It should be used to summarize and evaluate the employee's overall performance for the past year, to establish results to be achieved for specific tasks or projects for the next year, and to identify professional development goals to enable the employee to enhance performance in the current position or to prepare them for future growth.

Procedures

1. The supervisor prepares a written evaluation for the employee.
2. The second level supervisor approves the evaluation.
3. Human Resources reviews evaluations and completes the calibration process.
4. The supervisor discusses the evaluation with the employee and adds final comments.
5. The employee adds comments and signs-off. The supervisor signs-off.

Questions regarding Loyola's performance management process can be addressed to Human Resources at performancereview@loyola.edu or by calling 410-617-2354.

DEFINITION OF RATINGS

The performance levels described below are consistent with those used to determine merit increase ranges. Use these descriptions/levels when completing this section. Select the rating that best describes performance for each competency.

EXCEPTIONAL (5): Consistently exceeds all relevant performance standards. Provides leadership, fosters teamwork, is highly productive, innovative, responsive and generates top quality work. Active in industry-related professional and/or community groups.

EXCEEDS EXPECTATIONS (4): Consistently meets and often exceeds all relevant performance standards. Shows initiative and versatility, works collaboratively, has strong technical & interpersonal skills or has achieved significant improvement in these areas.

MEETS EXPECTATIONS (3): Meets all relevant performance standards. Occasionally exceeds desired results or objectives in one or more areas.

BELOW EXPECTATIONS (2): Sometimes meets the performance standards. Seldom exceeds and often falls short of desired results. Performance has declined significantly, or employee has not sustained adequate improvement, as required since the last performance review or performance improvement plan.

NEEDS IMPROVEMENT (1): Consistently falls short of performance standards.

Loyola Mission, Vision, and Values

Our Mission:

Loyola University is a Jesuit Catholic university committed to the educational and spiritual traditions of the Society of Jesus and to the ideal of liberal education and development of the whole person. Accordingly, the University will inspire students to learn, lead and serve in a diverse and changing world.

Our Vision:

Loyola University Maryland, anchored in Baltimore, will be a leading national liberal arts University in the Jesuit, Catholic Tradition.

Academic excellence – promotes a love for learning, discovery, and integration across a wide range of disciplines and interests.

Focus on the whole person – honors, cares for, and educates the whole person by encouraging constituents to strive after intellectual, physical, psychological, social and spiritual health and well-being.

Integrity and Honesty – integrity and honesty that is manifested in an atmosphere of open, civil discourse and careful, respectful listening where freedom of thought and expression are valued and protected.

Diversity – encourages openness to new discoveries, ideas, methods, and perspectives and actively encourage and celebrate diversity in all forms.

Community – strives to define goals and values clearly so as to ensure unity of purpose and to encourage shared ownership for the University’s mission and vision.

Justice – strives to foster global awareness, as well as a sense of solidarity with and care for all who struggle for justice. In particular, the University strives to foster awareness and understanding of first-world privilege, and of its attendant responsibilities for leadership and for advocacy of social and structural change.

Service – offers to all community members a rich variety of opportunities for solidarity and service both within and beyond the institution.

Leadership – identifies, develops, encourages, and rewards the exercise of gifts of leadership in all community members in all areas of their lives.

Discernment – encourages the practice of regular reflection and self-examination which foster awareness of the personal freedom (or lack thereof), a sense of personal responsibility for choices and actions, and a balance between enlightened self-interest and promotion of the common “greater” good.

Constant Challenge to Improve – strives for improvement on an ongoing basis by holding out an ideal of personal wholeness and integration as the ultimate horizon of growth, while simultaneously recognizing that development and growth require time and sustained effort. The University seeks to encourage its constituent members to think creatively and to challenge the status quo when appropriate. Loyola also seeks to foster habits of learning, inquiry, and personal and corporate self-examination that encourage ongoing growth and change in its members.

Please provide specific examples of how Loyola’s Institutional values were exhibited in the work setting. Discuss strengths and opportunities for improvement. The employee should provide a self-assessment, indicating how they have given expression to Loyola’s mission through their work. Review the Loyola Mission
